RECENT DISTRICTS IN COURT PLEA

St. Lucie County Case May Guide Action In Everglades

Suit for a receiver for the North St. Lucie River drainage district in St. Lucie county was filed Tuesday in United States district court at Miami, and the action is interesting because suits of the same nature may be filed against the sub drainage districts in the Lake Okechobee region.

The suit against the North St. Lucie River drainage district was brought by Chester D. Allen of Pasadena, Cal., owner of a drainage right dated May 1, 1920, and due May 1, 1923, two interest coupons for $30 each, due May 1, 1921, and May 1, 1922, have not been paid. The reason given was that there was no money to pay the coupons, and that the district was not sufficient to pay its obligations. It was alleged in the suit through Thad H. Carlton, attorney.

An order was issued by a federal court recently forbidding the supervisors of that district from accepting or disbursing any money in payment of drainage taxes. To raise money, the St. Lucie district supervisors have been ordered to plan that was proposed by a group of Port Pierce people—to build a small dam on the river at $55 an acre, the land so offered being the district got because drainage taxes had not been paid. A receiver is appointed to decide whether that plan will be carried out.

Expect Next PostOffice Fixtures Sept. 15th

Shipment of fixtures and furniture for Belle Glade's new post office will be made August 30 from a factory in Connecticut. Postmaster George Farnall is advised by the postal department.

It is assumed that about two weeks will be required for the shipment to reach Belle Glade. September 15 therefore is fixed as about the time when the new building will be occupied.

The building, erected by C. E. Riedel for the Belle Glade post office is ready for occupancy. It is of excellent design, and with the white stucco is one of the handsomest buildings in the town.

But Where'd He Get Feminine Apparel?

A negro convict at the state prison farm who escaped late Tuesday night, was captured Wednesday morning at the crossing of the new canal bridge at Belle Glade. He had dressed himself in women's apparel to get across the bridge. Stationed at the bridge by Captain P. D. Fancher, ordered the prisoner to stop. He was informed that he was stopping a woman who was on her way to cook for some white folks and that he was entirely out of order. Closer examination under the persuasion of the automatic rifle disclosed the escaped convict, who was taken on to the farm, and after dressing up in shacks to prevent another escape, was put to work in the land clearing crew.

This is the first escape from the Belle Glade institution in its seven months existence. Difficulty of escape is due to the canal and small number of exits, it is unlikely that any escaped convicts will remain long, says Captain Fancher.

BALLINGER CO. LOW RIDER ON MARTIN COUNTY ROAD

TALLAHASSEE, Aug. 18.—Applicants for low bidder for the 0.413 miles of materials needed for eight highway projects in Florida, were announced today.

Project 113, 8.5 Martin county, furnishing and applying approximately 710,000 gallons of concrete for mixed sand and gravel surface. John E. Ballinger Construction Company, Lakeland, was the low bidder.

Officials of the department here could not say when awards would be made, nor when the meeting of the board here would be postponed.

COUNTY AGENT TO SPEAK
M. T. Moutts, county agent, is on the program to address the Lake Rotary Club at the meeting to be held Thursday.

DRAINAGE IS NOT BASIS FOR LOAN

South Florida conservancy district is not eligible for a loan from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and a supervisor of the district was so advised. The News is told.

If reclamation district were eligible for loans, the number of irrigation and drainage districts and their indebtedness are such that the millions of dollars made available to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation probably would be inadequate to supply them.

Plan to get a loan from the finance corporation by the district was not supported by public sentiment in Belle Glade, where there is desire for change in the boundaries and the administration.

DRAINAGE BOARDS MEETING DEFERRED

The Palm Beach Times of Monday said: "The Everglades drainage board, which has held regular monthly sessions here ever since its reorganization several years ago, has decided to postpone its meeting."

It was definitely announced this morning that the board would not hold its August meeting, which had been scheduled for tomorrow. The reason given was that there was nothing by which could do it, since it has no funds for operation. At its July meeting the board had been operating funds cut off by a federal suit, ceased all operations of the Everglades drainage board, and the levy of taxes. The board members held their seats, however, although all members of the district were discharged.

Effort Fails To Get Hyacinths From Canal

A small flatting dredge that opened a channel from the lake to the canal, but the levee has completed its work and has been taken away.

Water navigable under control of the War Department are being used to explain the canal and the canal is navigable under certain conditions but the status of the canal is not such that the department can spend any money on it for the removal of hyacinths which impede navigation.

Major B. C. Dunn of Jacksonville, division engineer, corps of engineers, U. S. army, has replied to the letter of inquiry sent to him by the Lake Okechobee drainage board.

Plan if funds that are out of hand for the removal of hyacinths can be used in West Palm Beach county, which explains the plan to remove hyacinths from West Palm Beach county, and Robert Druggan, division engineer, U. S. army, has replied to the letter of inquiry sent to him by the Lake Okechobee drainage board.

C. Eugene Smith, of the Kilgore Seed Company, is staying at Belle Glade while Manager Brown of that store is away on a vacation.

Before you marry see Ann Harding in "Westward Passage" at the Prince Theatre, Thursday and Friday.

President H. L. Lapp was detained at Belle Glade and could not attend the meeting of the Rotary Club yesterday, and W. E. Keen did not come out from West Palm Beach to talk on "Taxes," but a very interesting meeting was held nevertheless. For Mrs. John P. Lapp served a wedding cake on account of Thurmond Knight and a birthday cake on account of Mr. Lapp. Mr. L. Elliott got to the meeting place after adjournment but because he ate a dinner just the same he claims credit for attendance.

Thurmond W. Knight, secretary and treasurer of the Lake Shore Supply Company arrived home last Thursday, last week, bringing his bride, the former Miss Cherry Burke of Los Angeles. They are living in the residence on Bacom Point road that he built last year. Mr. Knight is warmly congratulated by his friends and his wife cordially received.

E. G. Kilpatrick, Jr., has a car from Rev. J. A. Toile, who is at Lake Wales, saying he is able to sit up after his operation for appendicitis.

Due to the absence of the Rev. Joe A. Toile, pastor, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis in the Lake Wales hospital, C. A. Shive conducted the Sunday morning worship services at the Methodist church. A most interesting program was arranged for the evening worship hour, with O. W. McChure, Sunday school superintendent, in charge. A special musical arrangement of negro spirituals was sung by a local negro male quartet, also a negro female quartet.

Miss Lorraine Elliott and Clyde Doolittle motored to Indian River Sunday where they visited friends. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Collins and daughter Florence were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Fraser at their home on Avenue C Sunday.

Mrs. J. R. York and Miss Gertrude Wiloughby motored to West Palm Beach Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Thomas went to West Palm Beach Sunday where they met Mrs. Thomas' sisters, the Misses Frances and Juanita Lee, of Marianna, who will visit Mrs. Thomas. Mrs. E. G. Kilpatrick, Jr., and Mrs. Luke Fraser were for several weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. Hansen are occupying the Hansen's residence on Avenue A here in Pahokee.

CALLERS

H. L. McDonald of Orlando, president of the Bank of Canal Point and head of the Caterpillar Tractor Company in south Florida, came in Saturday afternoon to exchange views on the state of the country. He got back to Florida a time before from a vacation trip to North Carolina. Mr. McDonald says the upper Glades absorbed a large number of tractors last season and he expects this evidence that this region is more prosperous than any other part of the state.

R. V. Morgan of Sebring, who will be manager of the Highlands Furniture & Hardware Company, a new store in Pahokee, came down Saturday with Walter Ivings, an employee of the Highlands County News, and because Mr. Ivings is a newspaper man he called at the office of the Highlands County News and Mr. Ivings took the office of the Highlands County News.

M. E. CHURCH

The vacation church school opened Monday, August 15, with an enrollment of 49 children. On Tuesday 13 more enrolled and on Wednesday 3 more, bringing the enrollment up to 65 for the first three days. Miss Helen Carnive is the superintendent. Mrs. W. P. Jernigan, Jr., is teacher of the first class. Miss Joyce Mink is teacher of the junior fifth, Miss Dorothy Shearer, teacher of junior third, and Mrs. Willie Bridges is teacher of intermediate boys and girls. R. E. Stars, the pastor, has the young people's class. All departments are enthusiastic with their work, especially the art work. Miss Carnive is a specially trained worker along this line and all parents are invited to enroll their children. Those who attend regular and do the required work will be given a diploma at the close of the school. The young people's class will put on a play titled "Queen Esther" for the commencement exercises which will be in the church auditorium Friday, August 26, at 8 p. m. The parents and friends of the children are cordially invited to attend.

Special services next Sunday. "Radio Patrol" will thrill you and show you how the police work and finally conquer crime. See "Radio Patrol" at the Prince Theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Application For Loan Goes To Washington

Application made by the town of Pahokee for a loan from the federal Reconstruction Finance Corporation with which to install a new system has been forwarded to a board of engineers in Washington to which Mayor L. L. Stuckey was referred when he made a trip to Jacksonville to support the town's written application by a verbal statement.

Very little information was obtained by Mayor Stuckey because the head of the finance corporation's Jacksonville office had gone to Washington, beyond the statement that this application must be made to the engineers at Washington.

"Thousands of applications have been made from Florida and evidently the total in the United States is tens of thousands, indicating that by the time the red tape processes are completed with the conditions will have changed so much that the form of the original application will no longer serve."

4-H CLUB MEETINGS. Accompanied by four West Palm Beach 4-H club girls, Mrs. Edith Y. Barris, county home demonstration agent, spent Wednesday at the 4-H club meetings at Pahokee and Belle Glade. The girls, Mattie Gordon, Sylvia Peigs, Emily Olsen and Annette Reim, made reports on the school where they attended. The girls will meet again on the 4-H club at Palm Beach in July, and plans were discussed for the fall 4-H program.

The 4-H club at the Pahokee 4-H club, they attended a joint meeting of the Belle Glade and South Bay club at the latter town during the afternoon.

At 11:30 o'clock Friday they will attend a similar meeting at Palm Beach, Boynton and Boca Raton will participate.

lovable Metro star opens at the Prince Saturday and Sunday.

The phenomenal ability of this youngster never seems to reach a limit. Since he first captured the affections of the world in "Skippy" and most recently in "The Champ," it has been expected that he would not be able to equal these performances. Jackie has never been more powerfully presented than in his role of Limpy in "When a Feller Needs a Friend." As a crippled boy who develops an inferiority complex, through being forced to live a sheltered existence, he far outdoes any previous portrayal. The boy handles his role with the polish and emotional interpretation worthy of a performer many years his senior.

Charles "Chief" Dale gives one of the most entertaining "old man" characterizations of his career. Uncle Jonas, in his sincere efforts to help Jackie won the heart of the audience in the earliest sequences of the production. Although Dale is a comparatively young man, his excellent makeup and eccentric mannerisms make his performance of the crabbed old horse-car conductor very real. The difficult role of an over-sympathetic father who is constantly worried about the welfare of his son, is played with understanding and genuine feeling by Ralph Graves. America's boyhood will cheer Jackie when he overcomes all handicaps by mastering his greatest enemy—fear.

"WESTWARD PASSAGE" Big in theme, cast and production, a picture dealing with one of the most vital themes to women of the world today comes to the Prince Theatre, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

"Westward Passage" presents the glamorous, the beautiful and an imposing supporting cast in a drama of love and matrimony, romance and secret marriage.

All of the vast resources of the RKO organization were combined in making this picture as big as the theme upon which it is based. Against colorful backgrounds under the latest human story of a woman torn between two loves, Miss Harding is seen as a girl who gets the theory that a woman's first love is the dominant

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Stallings, Jr., left Monday to make their home in Miami.

Mrs. C. H. Mulroos was called to Hartwell, Ga., Friday to the bedside of her father, J. A. J. Peasey, who is seriously ill.

So human... so real... that you will laugh through your tears at this most appealing performance of lovable Jackie Cooper. See him in "When a Feller Needs a Friend" at the Prince Theatre, Thursday and Friday.

The Epworth League was in charge of Harry Pittman, Sunday evening, in the absence of its president, Miss Beth Daane. The subject of the program was "God is Nature." Three references were explained by Miss Gladys Williams. Harry Pittman gave a talk on the stars and the moon. The members of the cabinet are urged to meet with the Rev. J. W. Johnson at the parsonage at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon for business. All members interested in their work will meet at the Legion hall with J. F. Shindler to organize a church Thursday afternoon. Members present were: Grace Rowley, Gladys Williams, Louise and Jeanette Royal, Marie Harris, Dorothy Williams, Doris Reed, Bonnie Le-Lamb, Elaine Thomas, Thelma Beck, Francis Harris, Leonard Kirchman, Harry Lamb, Donald Weeks, Larry Morrison, Harry Pittman, Carl Bridges, Harry Lamb, Robert Thomas, Morris Lamb.

"Radio Patrol" will thrill you and show you how the police work and finally conquer crime. See "Radio Patrol" at the Prince Theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss LaVon Parker spent the week and with friends in Miami. Mrs. Charles Beck and Miss Lorene West have returned from West Palm Beach, where they spent the last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Campbell have returned from a month's stay in Fort Lauderdale.

Ann Harding, sensational in the drama of a divorced wife who dared to look back... the story of a heart that yearned for the arms of the man who had broken it. See Ann Harding in "Westward Passage" at the Prince Theatre, Thursday and Friday.

Progress Is Good on School House Work

Work on the Belle Glade school alterations and additions has progressed to the point of pouring concrete footings, which will be completed by Saturday.

Excavation and cement are on the ground and equipment for mixing and pouring the concrete is in place. The piles are all driven and erection of the frame will begin the first of the week.

If the progress is necessary is forthcoming by September 15, as outlined by the school board Tuesday, work will be pushed and the pendency by the time school opens on September 19, according to Friedman. Arrangements have been made with local merchants and business men to assist in paying the labor bills until that time.

ABOUT PEOPLE

Dr. E. D. Harris, a pioneer Everglades man who now lives at Okeechobee, himself an ex-convict man, helping other ex-convicts men to get hospitalization under the veterans' bureau.

Logan H. Hargrave, a West Palm Beach man who farmed at Okeechobee two years ago, is offering to lease or rent 25 acres of cleared apple land with buildings and tools, which indicates he does not intend to return to farming in the Glades.

Two men who were well known through the lake region when they lived in Moore Haven up to about seven years ago were back in Moore Haven last week as visitors.

A. M. Fisher and D. M. Bedenbaugh, who now live in Tampa, Mr. Fisher was the Atlantic Coast Line agent when Moore Haven was a busy town and was active and influential in politics. Mr. Bedenbaugh was superintendent of the Moore Haven & Clewiston railroad that John O'Brien and Mr. Clewis of Tampa built.

W. G. (Guy) Stovall visited the DeLand office of the Florida commission to the Chicago World's Fair recently and found the staff fully organized and functioning for the preparation of a good exhibit.

Ann Harding, sensational in the drama of a divorced wife who dared to look back... the story of a heart that yearned for the arms of the man who had broken it. See Ann Harding in "Westward Passage" at the Prince Theatre, Thursday and Friday.

Economy In Larger Use of Electricity

Rates for electric current for business establishments in Belle Glade and other upper Glades towns have been reduced. One grocery store whose bill has been running around $63 a month will, under the new schedule, amount to about $40.00. A drug store's bill that had about $60 a month will, under the new schedule, amount to about $35 a month. Most of the establishments afford to have electric equipment in addition to their regular illumination.

Pilling stations, operating air compresses and pumps by electricity will also be materially affected.

There is a flat rate for a specific amount of electricity and a downward sliding scale, seven cents and five cents for consumption over the specified amount.

Howard Crouch of Okeechobee has planted one of his town lots to cucumbers and another lot to pumpkins. He has also planted a one-acre lot to pumpkins. He was one year when "Dad" Leonard made more money from beans on a house in Canal Point than some farmers did on 20 acres.

A Democratic campaign committee has been organized in Glades. The committee was organized at the request of Joe H. Peoples and was attended by the Glades committee for county officers and others.

As in past years, times seem harder and there is more restlessness among the people than in the fall, winter or spring. This is because of the hard times in the north and the hoarding of money by people who are saving their funds to finance their farm operations. As soon as bean picking starts everybody will be in a good humor again.

The work on the lake shore levees hasn't given employment to as many people as was hoped. Contractors brought most of their crews with them, few local people being employed.

Cleaning up around home places on the ridge continues and is better than in previous years.

DEATHS

Trecia, 18-months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Douglas of Douglas Beach, died there August 14 of pneumonia.

Allen Chandler, 68, once a resident of Bassenger, died at Home State Monday of last week. He was the father of the Luther Chandler of Gouda who assisted in the organization of Pahokee Rotary Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gimbrey of Okeechobee lost their six-day-old girl baby by death. Interment was made at West Palm Beach.

W. G. (Guy) Stovall visited the DeLand office of the Florida commission to the Chicago World's Fair recently and found the staff fully organized and functioning for the preparation of a good exhibit.

Ann Harding, sensational in the drama of a divorced wife who dared to look back... the story of a heart that yearned for the arms of the man who had broken it. See Ann Harding in "Westward Passage" at the Prince Theatre, Thursday and Friday.

SOUTH BEACH

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Allen and children, Martha, William, Jimmy and Clifford, visited in Lake Worth Saturday.

Mrs. George Alberts, who has been ill for the last two weeks, is now very much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Heinrich Perry McAllister and Alice Willis attended the theatre in Pahokee recently.

Sparena, Mark and Mary Chalcian returned recently from New Jersey where they visited relatives.

Gideon Brown, G. L. Royal and Genevieve Brown, made a business trip to West Palm Beach Sunday.

Mrs. Maude Hartline and son Eric have returned from Alabama, where they spent their vacation. Hal Parlow, Mrs. Hartline's nephew, accompanied them on their return.

Elsie May Willis, Louise Rawls and Esther Von were guests of Mary Chalcian last week.

The building which is to be used as a community health center was moved to the hard road near the post office Friday.

The J. W. Haskley family from Bean City is now occupying the parsonage here.

"Radio Patrol" will thrill you and show you how the police work and finally conquer crime. See "Radio Patrol" at the Prince Theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. H. M. Willis and Mr. E. E. Forbes made a business trip to West Palm Beach last week.

C. L. Shaw and H. Gordon were hit by an automobile while in West Palm Beach last week. Mr. Shaw received many serious cuts and bruises and Mr. Gordon was also bruised badly. Both motored to West Palm Beach Monday to receive treatments there.

A returning party at Pahokee was enjoyed last week by Gary George Denton, Mary Louise Mitchell, Louise Rawls, Charlie Mathis, Betty Rawls, Morena Mathis, and Elsie May Willis, Beatrice Denton and Edith Willis.

Does a woman ever give a full measure of her love to her second husband... or is a corner of her heart forever the property of the man who first claimed it? See Ann Harding in "Westward Passage" at the Prince Theatre, Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. C. Grogan is having a building constructed near the barber shop here. The building is being constructed by the Messum, M. D. and M. J. Hardy. It is to be used as a restaurant and will be managed by Mrs. "Ma" Taylor.

S. J. Fisher has gotten material preparatory to building two stucco houses, which, it is thought, he will rent.

One hundred sacks of flour were sent out by the Welfare Society. Mrs. C. W. Grogan and Mrs. L. Lockmiller will distribute a part of it and P. W. McCurdy will distribute another part.

Mrs. John Mathis, Mrs. W. H. Rawls and Mrs. G. L. Vessey took a number of children to the dental clinic Monday.

Mrs. Chester Shaw is ill with a fever in her home here.

Mary George Denton is recovered from her attack of malaria fever. She was confined to her bed all of last week.

Floyd Allen is busily engaged in clearing off the lots of Mr. Alberts on the south side of town.

Perry McAllister and Frank Masters will start clearing their land this week preparatory to farming.

Thomas Von is going to leave Tuesday for north Florida. He will be accompanied by his two sisters, Genevieve Brown, Lenore Von Gleason Brown and Thomas Von Gleason, who are fishing at Pleasant creek recently.

Summer school was started here at the school house Monday. Mrs. Croun is teaching. A number of children are interested.

The South Beach negroes proved their worth Sunday when they won a close game of base ball from the Beach team and held the Belle Glade team at a tie. The score of the Beach game was 1-0 and the tie game score was 4-4.

The B. Y. P. U. program rendered of Sunday evening at the Baptist church was led by Mrs. George L. Vessey as captain of Group 3. The program was as follows: Duet, "List to His Voice" by Mrs. M. C. Hardy and Mrs. G. L. Vessey. Inductory remarks were made by Mrs. Vessey then Mrs. Hardy talked on "Early Development of Government Among the Jews." Mr. M. C. Hardy gave "The Making of a Nation." A piano solo "Abide With Me" was played by Ray Vessey. Ruth Anjima, "The Kingdom Period," and Mrs. A. Anjima talked on "The Jewish Attitude Toward Government." Mr. G. L. Vessey discussed "Paul and Peter's Teachings." The meeting closed singing "Break Thou the Bread of Life."
